

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, because our children are our most cherished treasures, we must do everything possible to ensure that they have the resources and knowledge they need to learn, develop, and achieve in a healthy and safe environment; and

WHEREAS, when started in childhood, good health, safety, and environmental habits can be maintained for a lifetime; and

WHEREAS, Kids Day America/International is a special day set aside to educate families and communities about health, safety, and environmental issues; and

WHEREAS, during this annual observance, doctors of chiropractic across South Carolina and the nation partner with local police departments, county sheriff's offices, dentists, photographers, and others to offer free child ID cards, spinal health screenings, and educational information about crime and fire prevention, healthy eating and exercise, and pollution, conservation, and recycling.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim September 20, 2003, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to work together to educate our children about health, safety, and environmental issues.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Mark Sanford", is written over a horizontal line.
